JUBILANT

Were the Catholic Soldiers at Camp
Zachary Taylor Sunday Morning.

Father O'Mahoney, of the Catho-
dral, Celebrates Mass
For Them.

First Services to Be Held in the Knights of Columbus Building.

FATHER BAXTER PAYS TRIBUTE

The Catholic soldiers at Camp Zachary Taylor were jubilant when word was passed that on Sunday morning the first mass offered at the cantonment would be celebrated in the Knights of Columbus building. As yet there is no Catholic army chaplain at the camp, but the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue has granted approval of local priests giving their services until the arrival of the regular chaplains. The mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock and there was quite a large gathering of the soldier boys despite the short notice. Rev. J. P. O'Mahoney was the celebrant of the mass, with Alphonse Ohligschlager and Lawrence Wellenbrink as servers. The temporary altar was placed in an alcove where the regular altar will be built. Grand Knight John P. Cassidy, Past Grand Knight Charles W. Decker, John A. Doyle, President of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, and Rev. Fathers Baxter, Hipple and Enos, of St. Louis Bertrand's, were present. Lieut. Weber, of the cathedral parish at Fort Wayne, was the first to approach the altar and receive holy communion.

The Rev. Edmund Baxter, O. P., of St. Louis Bertrand's, preached the sermon, a tribute to our soldiers and country, saying in part: "This occasion of the first Catholic services being conducted in this auditorium of the Knights of Columbus is indeed a blessed realization of our hopes. Our hearts are filled with deep joy and sincere gratitude for what has been done. Great praise is due to the Knights for their noble efforts. No one may say what great things will be accomplished in the future through their zealous work. Today's service is made possible by the untiring efforts of our good chaplain, Father O'Mahoney, and our Grand Knight, John Cassidy. This inaugural service will be cherished as a happy memory by all here present."

"In the history of the world no soldiers were ever given better care than that given to our own army and navy. Our Government has done everything to care for her noble sons. They well deserve the best, and the country will supply the best. The church in her tender solicitude for souls will not neglect our fighting men. There is an absolute need of positive religion here. Our soldiers must be brought near to God. But the very fact of creation, the creature is bound to God by the sacred relationship. This relationship is religion; strong, certain and effective."

"We must know God and know our obligations toward Him. Our obligations include obedience to his law, and worship that is worthy of Him. Those who look lightly upon moral obligations and those who fall to render to God this supreme worship can not claim to be religious. Religion is not an affair of words, but of deeds. Love your religion. Let others see by your lives that you possess a faith that is not an opinion, but a conviction. "Our Saviour said to his apostles: 'You are the salt of the earth.' I say to the religious-minded soldiers: 'You are the salt of the army that will save the whole mass and save it from corruption.' As things go on the sacred and eternal law of God will be insisted upon in this building. It is our duty to make religion a positive factor in human lives. We must make religion a real power among the soldiers. We must show forth that which is of Jesus Christ."

Tomorrow the mass will be at 10 o'clock, with one of the Pastoralist fathers from the Sacred Heart Retreat as celebrant.

The Knights of Columbus will have three buildings at the camp. The main building is 60x120 feet and will consist of a recreation hall in which religious services can be held on Sundays. The other two structures will be somewhat smaller and will be used for the same purpose. All three buildings at Camp Zachary Taylor are about finished and arrangements are being made for a formal opening. Alphonse Ohligschlager, of this city, has been selected as secretary for the Knights of Columbus buildings.

The formal opening of the Y. M. C. A. building took place Tuesday night, when the 4,000 soldiers, drafted men, militiamen and regulars, heard Protestant, Catholic and Jewish representatives say there are no longer any lines of creed or race, for all are joined together as Americans in a fight for democracy. Those who spoke were Gov. A. O. Stanley, Benjamin S. Washer, the Hon. E. J. McDermott, the Rev. E. Y. Mullins, Mayor John H. Buschweyer, the Rev. Dr. A. P. Lyon, Philo C. Dix and Gen. Wilder. Former Lieut. Gov. Edward J. McDermott, representing the Knights of Columbus, stressed the importance of the young men composing the National army adhering to their religious training. He told them that the man who fears God fights best. He paid an eloquent tribute to the American flag which aroused the audience to enthusiasm. He declared that the type of young men he was addressing would never permit that grand emblem to be sullied. Mr. McDermott said he was delighted to see the excellent results the Y. M. C. A. had produced at the camp. He said the Knights of Columbus would be glad to help make the men stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor feel welcome. The speaker used Washington as a model of patriotism who had little to gain, but a head and fortune to lose for his country. He complimented the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. H. A. for their work.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

On Sunday, September 30, Rev. Martin O'Connor and the people of the parish will have an elaborate and impressive celebration of the fifty-first anniversary of St. Michael's church, Bruck street, between Market and Jefferson. Preceding the mass there will be a procession in the church, when the children and sodalities will sing the "Hymn of St. Michael." Solemn high mass will be sung by the pastor, and the morning and evening services will be preached by the Rev. Father Enos, O. P. All the leading singers of the city have been invited, also the Concordia Singing Society, which will form one of the largest choirs ever assembled in any church in Louisville. Mozart's Twelfth Mass will be rendered, with Miss Kate Newman presiding at the organ and prof. John Recktenwald acting as director. Solemn vespers will be sung at 8:30 in the evening, when a large number of priests will assist. Old members and friends of the parish are expected to be present at one of the services at least.

HIBERNIAN INITIATION.

At the meeting of Division 3, A. O. H., held last Friday night, it was decided to hold an initiation on September 21, at which time the entire Hibernian baseball team and many others will receive the degrees of the order. President John Riley occupied the chair and gave a cordial welcome to President John H. Hennessy and the members of the County Board, who in turn invited all present to remain for the fall meeting that was to follow. D. F. Dolan was elected to membership and announcement was made that there were a number of prospective candidates whose applications would soon be received. An invitation to become interested in the San Francisco convention and form a club to make the trip was received and read. The Visiting Committee reported Tim McCarthy, a pioneer member of the order, still on the sick list and making only slow progress toward recovery. Financial reports showed the treasury in condition to meet all demands and efforts being made to reduce the home debt.

ACTOR LOUISVILLE BOY.

In the cast of "Believe Me, Xanthippe," playing at Macaulay's Theater this week, is Tello Webb, a well known Louisville boy and son of the late W. Neh Webb, who was a prominent attorney. Tello Webb made his dramatic debut playing juvenile roles with the Aquinas Union of St. Louis Bertrand's church, and among his associates who took part in the different amateur productions are John J. Gentry, Walter Hensley, Will McNally, Dave Burke, Neh Webb, Jr., Mrs. Hugh Finnegan, Mrs. Joseph Meehan, Miss Eugenia Webb, Mrs. James Reddy and Miss Blanche Gordon, the latter two deceased. Tello Webb, a slater of Tello Webb, is also in the professional ranks.

MACKIN COUNCIL MASCOT.

The Mackin Council ball team has skinned a mascot to make his debut in the Twin City League next season. The newcomer is a bouncing baby boy who has just arrived at the home of Manager "Bob" Shecker, of 2619 Slevin street.

PERSECUTION

Continues With Unrelenting Vigor Under the Carranza Regime.

Tyranny and Intolerance Toward the Church in Mexico States.

Feeling of Gratitude and Appreciation Expressed to Cardinal Gibbons.

INSULTS AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

The persecution of the Catholic church in Mexico is being continued with unrelenting vigor by President Carranza. Recent reports received by Southern Messenger indicate the extent of the persecution. Recently the parochial church of Cordova, in charge of Father Kreef, was closed by the new Governor of Vera Cruz. In answer to a protest from a group of Catholic ladies against his action, Gov. Aguilar refused to rescind his order, on the ground that under the new constitution all foreign priests are forbidden to exercise the sacred ministry in Mexico. Father Kreef is an American priest, pious, zealous and honorable; has been parish priest of Cordova for many years and is very highly esteemed by the members of his flock.

This incident affords a striking illustration of the gross injustice wrought by the new Mexican constitution. It is not extraordinary that a citizen of the United States—the nation to which the present Mexican Government owes its very existence—should without any fault of his be deprived by that Government of the privilege of exercising the functions of the most honorable profession on earth, be ousted from a position which he has filled acceptably for years and banished from the country—simply because he is an American! Such a law is an insult to the American Government and the American people, as well as to every other nation affected by it.

Another instance of gross tyranny and intolerance is reported from the State of Sonora. The new Governor of that State, Gen. P. Elias Galles, in a statement published in the press, declares that none of the exiled priests now sojourning in the United States will be allowed to return to Sonora, nor will any Archbishop or Bishop of the Catholic church be permitted to enter that State! For over a year now there has not been a single priest in Sonora, and the overwhelming majority of the population are deprived of the consolations of religion which they crave. These conditions are indicative of the conditions that prevail today in nearly every section of the unhappy land of Mexico. Shall the Catholics of the United States not continue to raise their voices in indignant protest until our Government is aroused to action?

In Guadalajara—the parish churches of El Santuario, Mexicaltzingo, El Carmen, La Purissima, San Francisco, San Jose and two or three more have been closed by a decree of President Carranza, because their pastors, it is alleged, participated in politics. The only political act that can be charged against them—if political it can be called—is the reading to their congregations of the pastoral letter of the Archbishop, approving protest of his brethren of the hierarchy against the new constitution framed at Queretaro. The authorities all over the country have been notified to arrest Archbishop Orozco y Jimenez wherever found.

The following letter, signed "Joseph, Archbishop of Mexico," has been sent from San Antonio to Cardinal Gibbons:

Your Eminence: The protest agreed to by the Archbishops of the United States, in their last meeting held at Washington, under the Presidency of Your Eminence, against the new constitution framed by the revolutionists, has so touched the heart of all the Mexican refugee Bishops in the United States that, in their own name and in behalf of all Catholic Mexican people, they consider it a duty to present to Your Eminence and to all the American Catholic hierarchy their deepest feelings of gratitude and appreciation, as I do also by means of this letter. As the Catholic church is not a national corporation, but something more than an international one, nobody can be surprised that Catholics of one country share the blessings afforded or the wrongs suffered by their brethren in any other country whatsoever. We have had many tokens of this community of interests on the part of Catholic people of the United States, and we are particularly pleased when, in answer to their pleading without any suggestion on our part and without any intervening aims, the President of the United States obtained from the First Chief the promise of religious freedom. The attitude of the Catholic hierarchy of the United States has also consoled us, because it shows that the slanders spread by the Mexican revolution have not obtained the intended results, namely of discrediting the Catholic hierarchy and people of our own beloved Mexico. With my most profound regards for Your Eminence, I have the honor to remain yours sincerely and gratefully in Christ.

RECENT DEATHS.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Tompkins, who died Wednesday night at her home, 2510 West Walnut street, will take place this morning from St. Charles church, of which she was a member. She leaves the following children: B. J. Tompkins, of Columbus, Ohio; J. J. Tompkins, of Birmingham, Ala.; Mary Ellen, Sarah and Margaret Tompkins, and Mrs. R. P. McIntosh and Mrs. Charles Duane.

The funeral of Frank Purcell, who leaves a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, was held Sunday afternoon from the Church of the Blessed Sacrament. Rev. Father O'Sullivan conducted the solemn services. The deceased was twenty-six years old and succumbed to heart trouble. Surviving him are his mother, Mrs. William Purcell, and a sister, Mrs. William J. Clawke.

Many friends were deeply grieved when they learned of the death of Miss Eleanor Dengler, beloved daughter of the late George Dengler and Lillie Dengler, of 1433 Winter avenue. Miss Dengler was twenty years old and was a girl of pleasing character, held in high esteem by all who knew her. Her funeral took place Monday morning with high requiem mass at St. Brigid's church.

Funeral services over the remains of William P. Glenn, beloved husband of Anna Glenn, were held Sunday afternoon at St. Cecilia's church, attended by many of his old friends and associates. He was the son of M. J. and Mary Glenn and had spent his life in the West End.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Michael McGillicuddy, forty-two years old and one of the best known men of the West End, died Wednesday night after a short illness of typhoid fever. For fifteen years he held the position of inspector for the B. E. Avery Company and was popular with both officials and employees. He was a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the St. Vincent de Paul Society, Woodmen of America and a charter member of Mackin Council. Left to mourn his death are his aged mother, Mrs. Abby McGillicuddy; two sisters, Mrs. T. J. Scully and Miss Mary McGillicuddy; and two brothers, Patrick and John McGillicuddy. The funeral will take place this morning from Holy Cross church, at the pastorate of which there was a constant stream of friends to the Scully home, 3419 West Broadway, where the body lay in state, to offer sympathy and pay a tribute of respect.

BISHOP HAYES' JUBILEE.

Last Saturday was the silver jubilee anniversary of the Right Rev. Patrick J. Hayes, Auxiliary Bishop of New York. Instead of the usual celebration of such events, the fourth degree Knights of Columbus, at the suggestion of the Bishop, will have a solemn patriotic vesper service at St. Stephen church tomorrow evening to hearken the Almighty to bring the bloody conflict in Europe to a speedy ending, consistent with his holy will, and to bring back, safe and sound, our men and boys who go abroad to fight. Bishop Hayes will preside and give the solemn benediction. Rev. William B. Martin, S. T. L., the eloquent pulpit orator of St. Patrick's Cathedral, will be the preacher. The musical programme will be of an unusual order.

CANTRILL

Receiving Quite a Boom For the Democratic gubernatorial Nomination.

Remarkable Handling of Presidential Contest Responsible For Comment.

Gov. Stanley Pays Tribute to Preacher Politicians and Political Preachers.

Tom Cronwell, the Clueknatter

FEDERATION OUTING TOMORROW

Enquirer political correspondent, in discussing the Governor's race two years hence says that numerous Democratic leaders predict that Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill will be the nominee, but that nothing definite has been heard from Mr. Cantrill or his friends as to his candidacy. Louisville Democrats and those nearby who came in contact with the Congressman last year when he was Chairman of the State Campaign Committee are in hearty accord with the above sentiments, as all appreciate his splendid handling of the Wilson-Marshall campaign, the results being especially marvelous when it is taken into consideration that the Hughes campaign money was poured into Kentucky like water, National Committeean Herl, of the G. O. P., having convinced the National Republican Campaign Committee that Kentucky was a debatable ground, and despite this Congressman Cantrill returned a majority for Wilson and Marshall of nearly thirty thousand. This showing was made without any flare of trumpets or display of working in unison together under his leadership, and the only element in the role of "suckers" was the Haly-Beckham clique, who gave the headquarters a wide berth and after the surprising results were returned tried to "dilly" themselves into a share of the credit.

The name of Judge Robert Worth Bingham is being mentioned as possible gubernatorial timber for 1918, also Congressman Alben Barkley, Judge John D. Carroll, Judge Charles Hardin, Prof. H. H. Cherry, Lieut. Gov. James D. Black and Dr. A. J. Alexander, of Spring Station, the Forward Club leader. In the Republican camp it is pretty near a certainty that E. P. Morrow will again be the standard-bearer because of his strong race two years ago and because he is the strongest of the liberal Republicans. His opponents say that a defeated candidate can't come back and some of them want Dr. Ben Bruner, of Louisville, to enter the contest on a strictly party platform, and others of the latter account for Morrow's showing by saying that the Haly-Beckham element killed Gov. Stanley and that the latter's campaign was also badly mismanaged, owing the attempt of some of his leaders to purchase the labor vote through a few professional labor politicians, the result being that Stanley was hit hardest where the union vote was strong.

Speaking of Gov. Stanley, he certainly struck a popular keynote in his address to the soldiers at Camp Zachary Taylor when he said: "I have seen plenty in Congress when millions of dollars were appropriated and there were hints of graft, but I never heard of graft in the great works trusted to the officers of the army. Some politicians nowadays are preachers and some preachers are politicians. I have known church leaders who prayed a powerful lot on Sundays and sanded the sugar on Mondays, but who ever heard of a soldier sanded the sugar?" This slap at the preacher politicians and hypocritical reformers is a pretty good jolt for the reformers in the Forward Club League, but the Governor overlooked another class in his comparisons, and that is the type known as the business man politician. This latter class never affiliates with any party regularly, voting the Democratic ticket one year, the Republican ticket next, and if the issue between the two parties is in doubt is found registering as an independent. They are above mixing in the hurly-burly of ward politics, as they call it, but for the sake of "good government" will always condescend to accept an appointment at so much per and will try to bamboozle the public that they are making an awful sacrifice in doing so.

The suggestion made in these columns last week that an invitation should be extended to the Democrats who were defeated in the primary to come forward and comprise a campaign or auxiliary campaign committee in the coming election has met with wide approval and hundreds of Democrats high and low said that the suggestion of the Kentucky Irish American should be the first order of business to come before the City and County Committee. A committee comprised thusly would advertise to all that the Democratic party was working in perfect harmony and that a united front would be shown to the common enemy in November. Again an attempt should be made to squelch those who are trying to drive Democrats into the Republican party by unfair and unwise criticism, designating defeated candidates and their friends as "soreheads," etc. Any man or woman who stake their all in a political contest instead of courage or abuse should receive the hand of friendship, which is the essence of Democracy.

The Federation of Democratic Clubs only want fair weather to make their big outing at Klondike Camp tomorrow the event of the year in Democratic circles, and President Joe Hodges and his co-workers say that the gathering tomorrow will be a successful preliminary to the race in November. The receipts derived will be given to the campaign fund and every man should do his bit in seeing that the hopes of the club officials are realized.

COUNTY BOARD.

The County Board, A. O. H., had a called meeting on Friday night of last week at the Hibernian Home that was well attended and full of interest. President John H. Hennessy presided, opening the meeting with prayer. Secretary James McFadden read the reports of the annual reunion and after a free discussion his suggestions were approved. Words of praise were spoken for the Hibernian ball team in the Twin City League, and suggestion was made that the boys arrange for a benefit game as a start for next year. Two death claims were provided for, which leaves the order without any encumbrance for death or sick claims. Messrs. James Lynch, Tim O'Leary, James McTighe, Lawrence Mackey, Thomas Langan and others made short talks, all of whom seemed elated with the progress the two divisions are making.

YIPES IRISH NUNS.

A touching ceremony has just taken place in the new home of the Irish nuns of Ypres, Morten, near Ennisceorthy, Ireland, where a fine convent has been erected to receive back the Sisters who found hospitality in Belgium in the dark penal days. Sir Thomas Emond, M. P., came to restore to the nuns two precious relics saved from burning Ypres during the bombardment. The first is a magnificent silver monstrance which has been in the convent for a long period and is of fine workmanship; the second comes at an opportune time, for it is the silver crozier of the Abbess of Ypres. Both were handed to the Abbess-elect of the Irish community of Benedictines, Mother Mary Maura, O. S. B., who succeeds the aged Abbess, who did not long survive the horrors and anxieties of the light to Ireland.

HARMONY

That Prevails at Irish Convention Amazes the Belfast People.

Ancient Enmities Are Forgotten at Sojourn in the Ulster Capital.

Delegates From the South Are Entertained by Eminent Citizens.

WILL ALSO CONVENE IN CORK

News from Ireland has been lacking for some time past, and the latest from the Irish convention was from Belfast last Saturday, via the Associated Press. From this source was received the following bearing Belfast date:

The visit of the Irish convention to Belfast, where it has just been holding a three days' session, accompanied with some experience of Northern hospitality and enterprise, marks a stage in its progress, as it has been a great success in every sense.

The Southern delegates who have seen Belfast for the first time this week have been entertained by the Lord Mayor, the Harbor Board and eminent private citizens. They have been taken to factories and shipyards and technical schools. They have had for their sittings the magnificent City Hall. All this has impressed them. It is a process of education as to the conditions of their own country, which perhaps was necessary for these representative men, often too localized in their experience, and it is at any rate a good preparation for the work they have to do. They are to hold a session in Cork in a week or two, when the South of Ireland will have an opportunity of completing the process.

It may be added that the visit of the convention to Belfast also made an impression on Belfast. Crowds gathered at the City Hall every day to watch these men from all parts of Ireland arriving and leaving. One may wonder which must have been the queerer mental exercise—those going on inside the worthy Orange man-at-arms, witnessing his Grand Masters and civic fathers colloquing with Popish Bishops and Nationalist M. P.s, or those of the Catholic stalwarts from Falls Road on beholding the same uncanny fraternalism.

The one figure hailed with spontaneous and impartial respect and greeted on each appearance with a general cheer was John Redmond. All this is to the good both to the state of feeling inside the convention and the more difficult part outside it. To produce a harmonious atmosphere is a necessary piece of work, and the convention is to be congratulated upon its success in this line so far. But too much must not be expected from mere atmosphere, the more difficult part of the convention's task now approaches—that of working out in detail a scheme upon which a settlement may be secured and which may be relied upon to work.

A correspondent, writing in a Catholic paper, takes the view that if the convention should fail to find a settlement it would be better that it had not met. It is a view widely held.

A recent letter written by a prominent Irishman resident in Ireland thus appraises the present situation:

You ask me in the belated letter about conditions in Ireland. They were clear enough on December last; now they are like the sun in the heavens. Sinn Fein has swept the country. So far as I know the movement is not pro-German, not even republican or anti-constitutional, but it is intensely democratic and anti-governmental in the sense of opposing the government of Ireland by Englishmen in the interests of England, as has been the case since Mr. Redmond came into power.

These words are doubly significant, in view of the fact that the writer of them is not a politician.

SELECT DR. FOWLER.

Dr. J. W. Fowler, Superintendent of the Louisville City Hospital, has been spending the week in Cleveland, attending the nineteenth annual convention of the American Hospital Association, to which he carried an invitation to meet here in 1918. The convention opened Tuesday morning with the most representative attendance ever known, delegates coming from the Red Cross, National Defense Council, the War Department and numerous other public bodies. Mayor Harry W. Davis welcomed the delegates to Cleveland, and to Dr. Fowler fell the honor of making the response, which evoked hearty applause and made friends for Kentucky.

FORTY HOURS.

The Forty Hours' Prayer will next be held in this city at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament on East Washington street, opening with the high mass tomorrow morning and continuing until Tuesday. These solemn but beautiful devotions will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Father O'Sullivan, who will have the assistance of a number of the local clergy.

WILL CURB THEM.

Control of the sugar industry during the war has been placed voluntarily in the hands of the food administrator by representatives of the refiners, who agree to import all sugar through a committee to be named by Mr. Hoover. This arrangement, it is hoped, will assure to the consumer a fair and just price during the war. Such an assurance was badly needed. Gradually the food profiteers are being ruled out of the game. Last year they had everything their own way. But they overreached themselves. That is why the Government has had to curb them.

WATSONIANS.

In the decree of the Postmaster General barring Tom Watson's Jeffersonian from the mails here are some Watsonian expressions quoted for the court record:

"Why not call Woodrow Wilson by the name of the King or the Kaiser or the Czar if the constitution is to be treated as the Kaiser treated the Belgium treaty?"

"The Kaiser did not swear to support the Belgium treaty. Woodrow Wilson did swear to support the constitution."

"Are we—like the sow returning to her wallow and the dog to her vomit—to go back to the medievalism of personal rule—a Pope's word ruling the Church, the King's word ruling the State?"

FIGHT FOR PEACE.

America's war object is its own protection through the overthrow of the system of military aggrandizement. America believes democratic governments, expressing as they must in the main the common man's hatred of war, will in the great majority of cases keep peace. America is fighting to save itself, and if possible all other pacific peoples, from the fate of Belgium, Serbia and France, and it will not make peace until it has attained this end, so far as this can be assured under present conditions of human organization.

AMERICA'S WAR PURPOSES.

Touching upon the official utterance, the Chicago Tribune points out that President Wilson's reply to the Holy Father in no sense suggests that any personality is involved in consideration of peace. That must be for the Germans to determine. The conditions the Allies require are a removal of the threat to their future security, which is not essentially a person, but a system. "The object of the war," says the reply, "is the delivery of the free peoples of the world from the menace and the actual power of a vast military establishment controlled by an irresponsible government," which has fully illustrated its dangerous and devastating character in this war. If Wilhelm II. and his family departed and the present system remained we believe we should soon have another disaster of war. No matter how reluctant to make war the masses of the German people might be, war would be precipitated just the same. The President therefore being an American and believing in the pacific instincts of all peoples, takes his stand on good American democratic ground and says that we will talk peace with the civilian peoples of the Central Powers, but not with an uncontrolled government saturated in military philosophy, which has for the central law of its belated being the doctrine of conquest.

FREE SPEECH.

Not long ago the right of "free speech" was invoked in this country to cover slanderous attacks on the Catholic church. These attacks were provocative of disturbances, but what cared the "lecturers" or the promoters who were taking in the quarters of the gullible dupes who paid to hear salacious slanders. Any protest against the abuse of free speech was construed to be an attack upon an inalienable right of American citizenship.

Today the right of free speech is being discussed—but from a different angle, and as the True Voice well puts it, it is not attacks upon the Catholic church that are being defended under this shibboleth, but attacks upon the Government itself. The other day a small band of pacifists, calling themselves the "People's Council of America," met in Chicago. In summarily dismissing them the Chicago police carried out orders issued to them by Gov. Lowden. In allowing them to assemble again the Chicago police carried out orders of Mayor Thompson, and now Illinois has a nice little war on the side between Governor and Mayor and State troops and Chicago police, all revolving around the right—or abuse—of free speech. If there can be legally no limits set to the right of free speech the Mayor is right. It was his duty to protect this right with the force at his command. But if the right of free speech is limited by other rights—the rights of individuals, institutions or the nation itself, the Governor was right in his attempt to suppress the seditious meetings of pacifists.

We believe in free speech; but we do not believe that the abuse of it should be protected by civil authority. A nation must protect itself from seditious utterances by forbidding them and by punishing them. That much is generally admitted, now that we are in a condition of national stress. Those who would claim the right to attack the Government at this time could expect no favorable judgment. It is not the right of free speech they are exercising, but an abuse of that right which they are perpetuating—and it is a dangerous pastime. This bringing up of this question in connection with the war probably will result in a clearer legal definition of the right of free speech. Heretofore the judgment of most of us has been carried away by a catchword. We have very clear convictions as to the limitations of free speech; but it takes a time like the present to bring home to the American people as a whole that there is a vast difference between liberty of speech and the license that has too often been mistaken for it.

CARE PARENTS HAVE.

Although the teacher assumes great responsibility when he receives the pupil entrusted to his care, the parent should not feel that every obligation is thereby lifted from him. That was an excellent injunction offered by Rev. J. L. O'Brien, Director of the Bishop England High School of Charleston, S. C., when in his circular letter to parents he appealed to them to put a ban on moving pictures, or at least prohibit the attendance of their son or daughter on school days. He says: "Dress your daughter modestly and decently. Frown down clothing which offends against modesty and invites slurring remarks from boys and men on the streets. Don't make a fop out of your son. Try to teach him the value of work. Supervise the study and home application to lessons of your boy or girl. Keep your growing boys and girls home with you at night. When they are out be sure you know where they are. Some young people are better liars than you give them credit for being."

NEED OF THE HOUR.

One of the most urgent needs of the present day is the clamoring demand for mass outfits for our army chaplains. In Georgia, Texas and other Southern States there are thousands and thousands of men in training, and the chaplains of the various companies which are located in these different points are beginning to feel worried about the lack of necessities for the saying of mass. It is to you, fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters, who perhaps have someone in training now, that this request for donations for mass outfits should appeal to mostly. Perhaps your soldier boy, for the lack of necessities for saying mass, may come back to you, not the good Catholic boy you sent to the front to fight for liberty's cause, but the irreligious boy which the lack of such necessities would undoubtedly make of him. The cost of the mass outfits for chaplains, which contain vestments, chalice, in fact everything for the mass, is $100; and while we know that all of you can not afford to give an outfit complete, still we do know that most, if not all, are in a position to send a donation, even if it be small; and for that reason we most urgently beg of you to lose no time in sending us your donation toward the purchase of the mass outfits, of which about 120 are needed, to the Catholic Church Extension Society, 750 McCormick building, Chicago, Ill.

A PRAYER.

Somewhere across the infested sea,
Serving the cause of liberty,
Dear Lord, is my brave son,
I know not how he fares tonight,
But keep him ever in thy sight,
For I have but the one!

Thou gavest two to bless my life,
But one fell early in the strife—
My first-begotten son!
He with his comrades marched away,
And then a message came one day—
Dear Lord, I have but one!

Then, while so sorrowed and bereft,
Though only he to me was left,
I could not say him nay,
Who urged that duty bade him go—
As country called, he said, and so
How could I bid him stay?

But, O dear Lord, 'tis hard to bear,
With not another child to share
The hearth when day is done!
I can but kneel to thee and pray:
Be with him through the hellish fray
And keep thou safe my son!

I know the cause is good and true—
I know that suffering must ensue—
Before the fight is won,
Yet bear with me, O Lord, this night;
Be thou my solace in my plight
And guard my only son!

WRITE YOUR SOLDIER BOYS.

Chaplain Brophy, of the United States regular army, calls attention to a very potent means of keeping the absent soldier faithful to his religious duties. He writes:

"His new environment will be a real trial and may be provocative of dangerous laxity. The absence of home influence and the difficulties of a new mode of life may help to crowd out the interests of his soul and furnish a ready excuse for remissness in what his faith exacts from him. Furthermore, he will have to contend with human respect, a foolish timidity that makes one do weakly and stealthily and so forego altogether the things which profit us most to do and which God wants us to do. The relatives of soldiers have an excellent opportunity to help them over these pitfalls. They must continue to wield the same influence which was so effective at home. Let them write regularly and frequently to their soldier relatives, urging them to be faithful to their religion, to frequent the sacraments and to attend mass regularly, even if it entail some sacrifice. Let each member of the family take part in this sort of correspondence and help to ward off any tendency to religious indifference or neglect on the part of their soldier relative."

PRAISES CATHOLICS.

We gladly comply with the request for its publication and give space to the following beautiful letter, written by Gov. A. O. Stanley, of Kentucky, to a Catholic friend of his:

"I have lived a good part of my life in the most pleasant and intimate association with Christians professing the Catholic faith, and I have been impressed by their steadfast loyalty and ardent patriotism. Such a thing as concerted opposition, either to the constitution or to the laws of the land, on the part of Catholics as such is, to my mind, absurd and preposterous to every fair-minded man who has any accurate knowledge of the character of the Catholics of America."

"The Sisters have proven the sincerity of their faith and their sacrificial devotion to Him whose name they profess and whose good works they perpetuate in every time of peril and disaster. Those who have seen the silent evangelists of love and charity in the midst of pestilence and disaster can not question the sincerity of their purpose or the beautiful self-sacrifice of their lives. I have little patience with a man who lost to every sense of decency as to question the character of a Sister. Many of my most valued friends are to be found among the ordained priests in the Catholic church. They are men of the highest character, in whose moral worth I place implicit faith, and whose intellectual attainments I very much admire. I assure you that it affords me great pleasure to pay this sincere and voluntary tribute to your church and those who have perpetuated it."

"P. S.—While I am not a Catholic, I am not the less lacking in respect for the church."

CLERICAL CHANGES.

The Rev. Father George Scheideler, since last December assistant to Dean Charles Curran at Holy Trinity church, New Albany, has been appointed pastor of St. Mary's Magdalene church at Holton, Ind. Rev. John Hanniford, of Logansport, has come to Holy Trinity in his place.

ANOTHER PRIEST CHAPLAIN.

One of the very newest of the army chaplains is Father Finn, the famous Chicago Paulist choir director, who has made a great musical society out of youthful male voices and led it in a successful tour around the world. Father Finn is a native of Oswego, N. Y.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH.

The people of St. Peter's parish are mourning the departure of their pastor, Rev. Edmund Kaiser, O. M. C., who left last week for Washington, where he will attend the Catholic University and take up mission work. His successor is Father William Heber, O. M. C., who has been pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Trenton, N. J. Father Kaiser was an earnest worker and was liked by every resident of the parish, both Catholic and non-Catholic, and for his young people he proved a faithful shepherd.

CALLED BY DEATH.

Mrs. Bridget Ryan, eighty-two years old, died at her home near Centerville, Bourbon county, following a short illness of grip. She was formerly Miss Bridget Keen and was born in County Limerick, Ireland. She came to America when a young girl and lived continuously since that time in Bourbon county. She was the widow of Patrick Ryan, a Bourbon county farmer. Mrs. Ryan is survived by three daughters, Mrs. William Brophy, Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Ryan, and one son, Patrick Ryan, all of Bourbon county.

FRANKFORT.

After spending a delightful summer vacation at their homes in Frankfort, Miss Anita Sower, Miss Mary Brisan, Miss Elizabeth Meagher and Miss Anegia Haldi left Monday for Georgetown, where they will study at Cardome Academy. Miss Josephine Briggs has gone to Nazareth, and Miss Mary Logan and Miss Mary Hall Stewart will resume their studies at Visitation Convent at Georgetown. Miss Mary LeGrande Geary will matriculate at the Midway High School. John Haldi will return to Mount St. Mary's at Emmitsburg.

EFFORTS TO BE RENEWED.

A press dispatch from Rome says the Pope has confided to neutral diplomats there that he is not discouraged even by the unanimous rejection of his peace proposals by the entente belligerents. He is determined to repeat his efforts, as he feels he is duty bound to spare no attempt to shorten the war and prevent its prolongation for another winter.

SUCCESS AS BUILDER.

During his archiepiscopate of eleven years the late Archbishop Blank, of New Orleans, presided over many archdiocesan improvements, such as the Ursuline College, costing $400,000; Mater Dolorosa church, $100,000; Holy Name church at Algiers, $150,000; St. Francis' church, $60,000; Loyola University, $400,000; St. Joseph's Seminary, $150,000; annex to Hotel Dieu, $200,000, and Incurable Home, $50,000.

THE KAISER'S JOY RIDE.

WAS A KENTUCKIAN.

Rev. Joseph Hill, S. J., who died recently at St. Mary's College, St. Mary's, Kans., was a native of Washington county, Kentucky. His parents were members of an old and well known Kentucky family, which was among the first to migrate from Maryland to Kentucky in 1785. His ancestors were among the first settlers in Maryland. He entered the Society of Jesus in 1884. During the year 1893-94 he was stationed at Creighton University. For the past fifteen years he had been at St. Mary's.

SHOWED THE WAY.

The local Advertisers' Club did a good turn this past week in arranging a banquet for the members of the Louisville ball club and the fans, this bringing to the public mind just what a good "ad" it was to have a winning ball team in the old town. President Marvin B. Lowman and his associates in the Advertisers' Club are in the game at all times and their progressive spirit has made a hit with the fans and players alike.

BARDSTOWN.

Bardstown Council, Knights of Columbus, at the last regular meeting elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Grand Knight, T. A. Spalding; Deputy Grand Knight, F. E. Daugherty; Financial and Recording Secretary, J. R. Smith; Treasurer, Harold Hurst; Chancellor, Joseph F. Boone; Advocate, Victor L. Kelley; Warden, G. T. Mudd; Inside Guard, Thomas Spalding, Jr.; Outside Guard, Johnson Mattingly; Trustee, W. J. McGinn.

ORDAINED SIXTEEN PRIESTS.

Cardinal Farley ordained sixteen young priests in New York City to take the places of the New York pastors and assistants now serving in the army and navy, the following being the list: Hugh A. Cronin, William B. Dugan, John J. Duffy, John D. Snyder, Joseph A. Kirwan, Walter A. Atwater, Charlton J. Burns, Andrew A. Cyacki, Bryan J. McWhorter, Charles K. Danforth, George H. McSweeney, Henry A. Sullivan, Albert J. McGovern, Thomas H. Dean, Thomas G. Conboy and Edward A. Hayes.

WEARING THE UNIFORM.

More men are actually in service under the flag either as soldiers or sailors than at any time in the country's history with the exception of the closing years of the civil war. The Government gives out the exact number of men at present under arms as nearly as it can be compiled. It shows that 943,141 men are now in uniform. This does not include any of the 837,000 men of the National army. It is estimated that already 100,000 have been accepted and by reason of that fact are now part of the military forces of the United States. In the months elapsed since the war began approximately 1,300,000 men have volunteered. This includes all rejections for the army, navy and Marine Corps.

CHORISTAS NEEDED.

So many are the appeals for chorists that the Catholic Church Extension Society has on file that it has become necessary to make known to the Catholic public the great need of this particular article of church goods. If you would like to help brighten the life of a lonely missionary priest you need only send $15 for the purchase of a chorist and the Extension Society will see to it that your gift is sent to a deserving missionary. Donations may be sent to The Catholic Church Extension Society, 750 McCormick building, Chicago, Ill.

CRADLE WE ROCKED.

Kentucky is the cradle of the new great Holy Name Society in the United States. One hundred and nine years ago that cradle was rocked in the parish of St. Charles in Marion county, diocese of Louisville. The register of the society at St. Charles, dated second Sunday in Lent, 1809, is preserved in the archives of the see of Louisville.

TRINITY COUNCIL.

Trinity Council, Y. M. C. I., is planning to do its bit in regard to getting its members in good physical condition, having secured the services of Charles Parsons as athletic instructor for the coming season, and as the new instructor's ability is well known Trinity is sure of the development of good athletic material. The Euchre Committee announced that the annual mammoth Euchre and lotto would be given on October 24 and 25. Kirwan Bateman has been selected to fill the vacancy of First Vice President and James B. Kelly, Jr., that of Collector.

DAN CUNIFF INJURED.

Daniel W. Cuniff, the veteran letter carrier and prominent in Catholic fraternal circles, was badly injured early Wednesday morning by being struck by an automobile while crossing Broadway near Second street. His physicians report that in addition to being badly shaken up his hip and legs are injured.

TOUCHING CEREMONY.

Another touching ceremony in France during the past few days was the attendance of some 2,500 Irish soldiers at the Basilica of Notre Dame des Miracles, St. Omer, where a novena was in progress. The soldiers arrived with three generals at their head and forty staff officers. They attended mass, said for their intention on Sunday in presence of Bishop Julien, of Arras. After the mass an Irish chaplain ascended the pulpit and thanked the clergy of Arras and their Bishop for their unfailing kindness to British soldiers. After all had knelt for the Bishop's blessing outside the church there was a grand finale before him when he stood at the door of the rectory and took the salute while the band of the Irish regiment played patriotic airs. When the three Generals arrived before him they went over to him and, kneeling at his feet, asked a blessing on themselves and their men—an act of humble faith which was greeted with applause by those present.

MENACE IRISH PEOPLE.

If Ireland and the people of the Irish race shall continue to enjoy their present high status before the civilized world it will be not because of, but in spite of, the senseless and reckless emanations of certain publications proclaiming themselves to be specially dedicated to the advancement of the Irish cause. We do not hesitate to say that these crazy performances under present conditions constitute the most serious menace to the hopes and ambitions of the Irish people even as enunciated by these same publications. The present should be a season of sanity, sense and sobriety.

SOME PARSNIP STEW.

Three slices salt pork, fry out; three large parsnips, peel and slice; three onions sliced, six potatoes sliced, enough water to cover; add salt to taste; add one tablespoon sugar. Cook until the potatoes are up. Then add milk to suit. Add piece of butter size of walnut. This will make a good dinner for six persons.

THEY HAVE.

We got a brevity pamphlet in Ireland, thinking we would get something different and we did, but we should have gotten a pair of specks to complete the purchase. They have wonderful eyes in Ireland, they say.—Catholic Advance.

PRAISES THEIR LOYALTY.

Provost Marshal Gen. E. H. Crowder, in a letter to Col. P. H. Callahan, Chairman of the Committee on War Activities, Knights of Columbus, expresses his appreciation of the attitude of that order, the members of which have decided not to claim exemption for the several hundred of the membership who are doing important educational and recreational work. Gen. Crowder says that "this attitude is so fine and reassuring and so full of what I am pleased to call genuine Americanism that I can not refrain from sending you a personal word to congratulate you."

FEDERATION.

The regular monthly meeting of the Federation of Catholic Societies was held Thursday night in the Inter-Southern building, but the attendance was somewhat disappointing, due perhaps to the numerous public and other attractions. After the delegates to the Kansas City convention made their reports and explained the work planned for the coming year, there was an earnest discussion of conditions arising from the war and the duty that confronts the local federation, which requires the services of every delegate.

DECLARED DISLOYAL.

At the last Mayoralty election in Chicago a Catholic was one of the candidates. Voters were urged by all Catholic organizations to vote for his opponent, who was elected. We would not go so far as to say that Mayor Thompson was elected as an anti-Catholic issue; but certainly he had the support of every element that hated the church. We wonder how the voters of the city by the lake are satisfied with Thompson now. The National Security League has declared that he is disloyal to the nation. An effort is being made to indict him for treason. The anti-Catholic agitators seem to be singularly unfortunate in their friends.

CLEARING WAR SITUATION.

Cardinal Gasparri, Papal Secretary of State, returned Sunday to Rome from a fortnight's vacation and immediately set to work, together with Pope Benedict, on the accumulation of documents received during his absence regarding the Papal peace initiative. To those who approached him Cardinal Gasparri said: "Whatever happens, the proposition made by Pope Benedict in favor of peace will have the effect of greatly clearing the situation."

COVINGTON.

Saturday week the Right Rev. Bishop Brossart, of Covington, passed the forty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. In keeping with his usual reservedness, no celebration of the event was held and the day was observed quietly. Many congratulatory messages were received from friends among the clergy and laity.

RED CROSS SOCIETY.

At the beginning of this year the membership of the American branch of the Red Cross Society was 175,000. It is now more than 3,500,000. The organization has 2,400 chapters, with representation in every city of importance throughout the country.

THE ALTAR BOY.

A material help for boys to prepare for future life is to serve at the altar. He who sacrifices his morning sleep, overcoming sloth, to minister to the priest at mass is already by a privilege fulfilling the functions of one of the minor orders. The devout server at mass shares in its graces next to the celebrant, and more than the ordinary faithful who assist at it, and many an altar boy, as he glided about the sanctuary, mingling with the invisible angels who hovered around the Victim of the Sacrifice, has felt the seeds of vocation sprouting in his soul.—Rev. Francis Cassidy, S. J.

INGRATITUDE.

"All my efforts to be useful around home come to naught," wailed an Atchison man. "The other day it entered my head to do the family washing. But because I put tea towels in the washing machine with white clothes, and later put colored clothes with white clothes, and still later washed dishes with water I took from the washing machine after the washing was done, my wife ordered me to leave the premises."—Kansas City Star.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

With two initiations this month there will be a substantial increase in membership.

Ed Keiran and Thomas Hannon made short talks at Division 4's meeting Monday.

The annual reunion at Baltimore was a great success, the efforts made being well rewarded.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will furnish fifty mass outfits for Catholic chaplains with the United States army.

Division 3 will meet next Friday evening, and President Riley plans to take in the members now awaiting degrees.

A roster is being kept of those who have joined the army, who will be kept in membership until after the war.

Hibernians throughout the West End feel sympathy for the veteran, Tim McCarthy, who has been ill for three months.

Big Tom Noone knows every Hibernian in the city and always gives the glad hand to visitors at meetings of Division 3.

Dave O'Connell, one of the old guard, was a visitor at Division 4 Monday evening and made a good old Hibernian talk.

Messrs. O'Leary and O'Brien, of Division 3, are enthusiastic "rooters" for the ball team. It is such support that counts.

Martha Mullaney, Business Manager of the ball team, is now busy gathering in the paraphernalia to store away for the season.

President Tom Lynch, of Division 4, is receiving the congratulations of his friends on the nice promotion he received from the I. C. R. R.

President Riley and Lawrence Mackey have been working with the degree team, and feel confident of a successful exemplification next Friday night.

Minneapolis scored the third and final victory in the tug of war contest with St. Paul and becomes possessor of the Bremer cup. This was the feature event at the field day at St. Paul.

The combined divisions of Cincinnati and vicinity tendered a reception Thursday night to those of their members who have been called to the colors. Attorney Paul V. Connolly delivered a stirring address on the patriotic duty at the present time.

In connection with the membership campaign the Los Angeles Hibernians are making it most pleasant to note the very complimentary address on a similar campaign twenty years ago, made by Bishop Montgomery on the occasion, and the tribute he paid to the division and its officers for the work which they were doing for "our people, our Holy Mother the Church, our country and for Ireland."

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

New Albany Council of the Knights of Columbus will close a very successful year with the installation of the following officers, who are prominent in the business life of that city: Grand Knight, C. Urban Zoeller; Joseph Fougere, Deputy Grand Knight; Robert Y. Ryan, Chancellor; Anthony Zoeller, Recording Secretary; Herman Verma, Financial Secretary;

William J. Reeveur, Treasurer; Gilbert Powell, Advocate; Frank Ritz, Warden; Louis L. Verma, Inside Guard; Joseph Bruns, Outside Guard; and John A. Cody and James A. Thornton, Trustees.

K. OF C. VICTORS.

Hardly second to the local fans' interest in Louisville's dash for the pennant is the notice taken of the local Knights of Columbus team, who won two victories over the Christ Church team, the amateur champions of Cincinnati, last Sunday, thereby winning the right to take further part in the elimination series for the national amateur championship. It will be remembered that the Knights lost a questionable eleven-inning game at Cincinnati the Sunday previous and had to win the two here last Sunday for revenge, which they did handsomely. The morning game at Eclipse Park was a corker, ending 1 to 0 after a stirring pitchers' battle between Darnell for Cincinnati and Michael Angelo Ciresi for the home boys. The afternoon game showed an awful reversal of form for the visitors, making five errors and only four hits off the Italian Count, who twirled better ball than in the morning, striking out eleven men and walking none. The final score was 19 to 2. The Christ Church pitchers were "deserted" for Liam Clifford, who poled out two home runs and a triple out of five times up. Manager Tom Clines announces that the Knights will now play the New Orleans team, winners of the Southern amateur championship, for the next leg of the championship, the game to be staged at Eclipse Park on Sunday, September 22. "Bud" O'Brien, the hustling manager of the Champs, and a star infielder of the Twin City League, will play second base for the K. of C. team, succeeding Curley, who last Thursday was called to Hattiesburg in the service of Uncle Sam.

ONE MORE SERIES.

Milwaukee plays here again today and tomorrow, followed by Kansas City in the closing series of the season, the last game being next Wednesday. The Colonels should trim Livingston's Brewers the remaining two games in revenge for the awful blow given them at Milwaukee last month, when Louisville lost three games, those defeats giving the club an awful setback in the pennant race. The fans of Louisville, Indianapolis and St. Paul have been on edge on the anxious seat this week because of the great battle for the pennant flag, the winning of which is still in doubt and the leader today has no strangle hold on the championship. About the best thing the local fans could wish Owen Wathan is that the Colonels and Hoosiers finished tied up for the pennant next Wednesday evening, and then let the league officials get together and arrange a three-game series to decide the honor. That would bring a little world's series of our own in this section and give the players and fans alike some great sport for a closing bill.

TRAGIC DEATH.

Charles L. Kelly, a well known young man of Louisville, was killed in an automobile accident at Carey's Point, N. J., according to a telegram received by his mother, Mrs. John L. Kelly, of 709 Florence Place, Wednesday night. The message gave no details of the accident, and his family was at a loss to know whether he was killed while riding in a car or was run down by one. Kelly's death is the second tragedy in the Kelly family. Martin, another son, who was a steeplechase jockey, was injured on an Eastern track about ten years ago and brought home, where he died of injuries. Another son started to school about eighteen years ago and was never heard from again. Young Kelly left Louisville five months ago to accept a position as timekeeper with the Dupont Explosives Company at Carey's Point. While here he had been a clerk at the L. and N. office building for several years, and at one time was a rodmann with the City Engineer's office. He was twenty-six years old. His father, John L. Kelly, a night watchman for the L. and N., his mother, a brother, Frank Kelly, and one sister survive.

HONOR ROLL.

In the vestibule of St. Ignatius Catholic church, Park avenue and Eighty-fourth street, New York City, hangs a roll of honor with the names of ninety-eight young men of the parish who have enlisted in some branch of the United States service since war was declared against Germany. The names are arranged in alphabetical order surrounded by a large gold frame, space being left for those who will join the colors through the draft. Of this number at least eighty bear Irish names.
